Information + Schedule

Eager to participate and a fun and easy game? Well, you've come to the right place! Whether you like the Hunger Games or not, you're bound to like this generator.

Basically all you have to do is send in a cat from the original Warriors series and just put their name and gender. Voila! After 24 cats are entered, 12 females and 12 males, then the game will begin! All 24 cats will go against each other (and I'll use an online generator...) and all you have to is sit back and wait to see if your character LIVES or DIES!

EXAMPLE:
Your entry
Name: Squirrelflight
Gender: she-cat

Then in the generator it'll have something like:

Squirrelflight kills insert another name here with a hatchet.

Squirrelflight is killed after she drowns in a river.

And you don't have to do anything except send a cat in!

So please tell your friends because we need 24 people to sign-up! 12 toms and 12 she-cats, remember that.

Rules:

• One cat per person!

• Don't rage if your character is killed or does something they might not do. It's a generator, calm down.

• Please only sign-up on the sign-up sheet...don't sign up on the cats / districts part.

• You can't enter a cat that has won a round.

• Not everyone is going to get in, so please don't get mad at me if you don't make it in time. ;-;

• You can't use a cat you've used from a past round.

• You can't use a cat that was used in the previous round.

• Even though we need cats some people know, do ones that aren't going to be constantly repeated! __cough__ Jayfeather __cough__ Scourge __cough__ Tigerstar __cough__

WHAT CATS YOU CAN DO:

Cats from Dawn of the Clans, The Original Series, The New Prophecy, Power of Three, Omen of the Stars, A Vision of Shadows, Mangas, Super Editions, E-books, and Guides.

So yeah! I think that's about it! Sign-ups will be on the next part :3

Also, here's a schedule:

Basically I'll post sign-ups whenever I wake up, and then I'll do the game at nighttime. That way more people will have a chance to enter and won't be left out. I had a lot of comments last book that complained about this problem and I'm hoping this'll fix it for some people.

So here's the schedule:

Signups will be posted around:
10:00-12:00 am central time in the U.S.

The game will begin around:
10:00-12:00 pm central time in the U.S.

ROUND 9I | Signups [CLOSED]

// Not accepting any more entries //

--There may only be two leaders (already have two--don't enter a leader)
--There may only be two apprentices (already have two--don't enter an apprentice)
--No kits are allowed
--You may only enter one cat

SIGN-UP SHEET:

Name of Character: (Must be a name that was mentioned in the books)
Gender: (tom or she-cat)

To make things easier, I'll add in two characters. So we'll need 22 characters now!

My sign-up:

Name: Beetlewhisker
Gender: Tom

Name: Squirrelflight
Gender: She-cat

So yeah! If you have any questions comment, since I can't PM or reply to message boards.
Thanks if you participate!

ROUND 9I | Cats / Districts

how do you deal with grief.

I feel like everything bad that could ever happen happened this year.

This year? This whole year has been shit.

My best friend died.
My great grandmother died.
Depression and anxiety have been controlling my life.
I have no friends.
I'm lonely.

And to top it all off? My fucking three month old cousin is murdered.

I just want to die at this point. I've lost everything. I feel like there's a gaping hole in my heart and I don't see any fucking point to go on if all I'll do is suffer!

Am I just bad luck?

Or am I just a pitiful human being that can't deal with anything?

I don't know.
I don't want to kill myself.
But at the same time I do.

I also just want to kill the fucking idiot who murdered my cousin. I want to take my anger out on something. Or I just want to cry. But I can't.

I'm sorry if I seem like a crybaby to you, or an attention whore, but if that's what you think of me, then you can go fuck yourself and stop reading. I'm tired of being used and backstabbed over and over again.

I don't want the only people I have here to do that to me too.

Fuck.
I'm sorry.
I just want someone to fucking understand my pain for once.

please read every follower hello.

truly, I never thought I'd have to be doing this. I never thought I'd have to stay up at night, wondering what else I could have done to stop this from happening, to stop my best friend from doing what she did. but this is what it's come to.

I'm very sorry to inform you all that Cora, the former admin of this account, took her life four days ago. I don't understand why she did this. I wish she'd tell me why. but I'll never receive that answer.

I've been going to all of her account to announce this, because I think all of you deserve to know. Cora dealt with a lot of grief throughout her life. She went through a lot of pain and suffering and maybe that's what pushed her over the edge.At this point I honestly don't know. But she did it. I wish I could've stopped it. Maybe if I'd known sooner I would've been able to help her.But that never happened.

I knew what was going on with her. She was distant,irritable, depressed. She was sick. Really, really sick.For a long time. But she wouldn't open up to me. She wouldn't talk to me out of fear of being betrayed and used, like she was so many times throughout her life.

She was so angry. It was like she hated herself.I know she wasn't mad at me, but I know for a fact how much she was at her own self. Maybe this is why she grew distant. Not to.. Hurt me.. Something. I don't know. I'm trying to scrap up any piece of evidence I can to understand what Cora went through.

She was hurting. I could tell byl ooking at her. She wasn't okay. She split away from me.

And I let her. That's why I'll never be able to forgive myself.

Maybe she was in so much grief she felt like she had to take her own life.
Maybe she was so miserable and depressed and anxious and sick and sorrowful that she had to do this.
Maybe it was because I didn't step up and help her like I should have done.

This is going to take a long time to heal from.Cora played a huge part in my life. She was strong, brave, caring. She always stood up for me, she always had my back, she would never betray me. She held me up.

But did i?

I didn't mean to. I didn't mean to ignore her.i didn't mean to do this. But I was trying to fit in. I've never been able to feel like a part of a group, and I felt like I finally found a place.

Of course I tried to include Cora. I couldn't pay attention to her 24\7 but I at least tried to make her feel welcome.

But nothing worked.

Cora was beautiful, talented, strong-willed, determined, unique.. if only she was here to hear what I've had to say about her. If only she could know how much she matters in this world,not just to me, but to everyone.

Cora is gone, but I know I can find the strength to move on. Cora gave me hope. Cora gave me understanding. Cora gave me knowledge.

So, I urge all of you to pay close to attention to your friends,to value those who you are close to, to spend as much time with your loved ones as possible. Blood or not.

Now, we will forever remember Cora. She may have taken her life, but she now hopefully walks a happier path.

Rest in peace, Cora.
1/30/17.
